The draft notifications at pp. 87 and 89 , as slightly amended, are in order. The notifications may be published on the dates proposed by the Finance Department.

2. A revised draft notification in place of the F.D. draft notification at pp. 85-86 is sent herewith. Although no time-limit is laid down by law within which the ppreliminary draft shall be taken into consideration by Government, as the draft of the proposed rules is meant for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby, it is necessary to prescribe some reasobable time-limit. What is a reasonable time-limit will have to be decided in each case having regard to the nature of the draft. If Government considers in this case that the period of three or four days allowed for inviting objections and suggestions is sufficient, there is no legal objection to laying down that period. As the time allowed would be short ,Government may supplement the publication of the draft in the Official Gazette by publication in important local news-papers.
